

student request for travel funds from School of Social Transformation (Justice and Social Inquiry, Women and Gender Studies, and Pedagogy Students)

Student Name _____ Date _____ Program _____

PhD

Masters

Were you in the job market last year or will you be this year? _____

Date of conference: _____

Name of Conference: _____

Location of conference: _____

1. Paper Presentation

has your paper been accepted? _____

Authorship (list all authors as noted on paper): _____

Title of paper: _____

2. If not presenting a paper, specify your participation (discussant, chair, panel member, organizer, board member, etc.) _____

3. What travel funds did you receive last year? Include all sources.

4. Do you plan to attend future conferences this financial year (July 01-June30)? _____

Funds are not guaranteed and will not be made available until confirmation of your participation in the program has been received. If you are seeking funding outside the School of Transformation (i.e. Graduate College, GPSA, etc.) you must fill out the appropriate applications and adhere to their policies and procedures.

5. Indicate the sources you are seeking funding through:

Women and Gender Studies

Justice Studies

Graduate Professional Student Organization

Graduate College

Other

student request for travel funds from School of Social Transformation

(Justice and Social Inquiry, Women and Gender Studies, and Pedagogy Students)

Please attach copies of the following:

- A. Printout of the online ASU Travel Authorization form
- B. Letter, email, website validating your presentation or participation
- C. Conference website home page with hotel information (including location and conference rates)
- D. Paper abstract (if presenting a paper)

For Office Use Only

Amount _____

Approved:

Yes

No

Date of Approval _____

Signed by _____