

Julia Gutiérrez
Arizona State University
School of Social Transformation
Wilson Hall, 240 Orange Mall
Tempe, AZ 85281
(773) 532-9130

EDUCATION

Ph.D., Arizona State University:

Gender Studies; Fall 2014- expected PhD May 2019

Dissertation: “We identify as poor because of the money we earn not because of the way we live”: Perceptions and Experiences of Poverty among Mexican Immigrant Women on the Southwest side of Chicago

Dissertation Committee: Karen J. Leong, Mary Romero, Mary Fonow, and Alesha Durfee

M.A., University of Wisconsin- Madison:

Women and Gender Studies; Spring 2013

Master’s Thesis: Documenting Herstories: Chicana Activism in the 1960’s in the Midwest

Master’s Thesis Committee: Christine Garlough, Karma Chávez (The University of Texas at Austin), and Keisha Lindsay

B.A., Northeastern Illinois University:

Major, Women’s Studies and Minor, Sociology; Spring 2011

McNair Scholar Project: The Impact of Gang Violence in the Life of Latina Youth,

RESEARCH INTERESTS

Gender and Migration

Globalization and Labor Migration

Intersectionality

Gender, Race, Poverty

Urban Studies

Economic Inequality

Transnational Feminism

Chicana Feminisms

FELLOWSHIPS/AWARDS

- School of Social Transformation Summer Completion Fellowship, Spring 2018
- Teaching Poverty 101 Workshop funded by The Institute for Research on Poverty- University of Wisconsin Madison, Spring 2018
- Women and Gender Studies Dissertation Completion Fellowship, Spring 2018
- Graduate College Fellowship, Spring 2018
- Comprehensive and Prospectus Award, Fall 2017
- Gender Studies Travel Grant Award, Fall 2017
- Gender Studies Doctoral Research Fellowship, Summer 2017
- Summer Dissertation Proposal Writing Workshop funded by Howard University’s Center on Race and Wealth and University of Wisconsin Institute for Research on Poverty, May 2017
- Graduate Excellence Fellowship for First Generation Students, Spring 2017
- Graduate and Professional Student Association Individual Travel Grant, Spring 2016
- School of Social Transformation Travel Grant Award, Spring 2016
- Excellence in Diversity and Inclusion Nomination Award, Spring 2015
- Graduate Education Fellowship, 2014-2015

PUBLICATIONS

Cisneros, J., & Gutierrez, J. (2018) "What does it mean to be undocuqueer?": Exploring (il)legibility within the intersection of gender, sexuality, and immigration status. QED: A Journal in GLBTQ Worldmaking, 5(1), 84-102.

Meiners, E., Quinn, T., Chávez, R.K., Gutierrez, J., Preston, C., Willse, C., (2016). Community fault-lines: Teaching and learning about power, institutions, and change. Transformations: The Journal of Inclusive Scholarship and Pedagogy, 26(2), 256-271.

ACADEMIC CONFERENCE PRESENTATIONS

"Struggling in the U.S. is the same as in Mexico!" Globalizing the Feminization of Poverty through Mexican Migrant Women's Experiences. Global Studies Association- North America. Howard University, Washington, D.C. June 2018.

"Being at Home" in the Southwest: Women of Color Graduate Students' Narratives of Trauma, Violence, and Self Care Strategies in a Neoliberal Institution. National Women's Studies Association Baltimore, MD. Nov 2017.

Nepantleando: Navigating the "in-between-ness" of Academia and Home in a Gender Studies Department in a Neoliberal University. Seditious Acts: Students of Color Interrogating the Neoliberal University. University of Minnesota, Minneapolis, MN. April 2017.

"We identify as poor because of the money we earn not because of the way we live": Poverty as a Transnational Phenomenon and its Impact on Mexican Immigrant Women in the U.S. National Association for Chicana and Chicano Studies Irvine, CA. March 2017.

Not an Undergraduate, Not Yet a Professor: The Experiences of Women of Color Graduate Students on a Predominately White Campus. Speaking the Unspeakable: A Conversation on Colorblindness, Racism, and Antiracism. Arizona State University, Tempe AZ. February 2017.

Perceptions and Experiences of Poverty among Mexican Immigrant Women in the U.S. and its Relation to Globalization. National Women's Studies Association, Montréal, Québec. November 2016.

Globalization as a Gendered Phenomenon and the Creation of Economic Inequality among Immigrant Women in the U.S. Institute for New Economic Thinking: Young Scholars Initiative. Central European University, Budapest, Hungary. October 2016.

I was selected as one of 231 young scholars chosen from more than 700 scholars who applied from 78 countries and 6 continents for this inaugural Young Scholar Initiative Plenary. I was the only U.S. scholar selected to participate in the Gender and Economics working group.

Trenzando and Creating Space: Xicana/Latinx Expression, Visibility, and Empowerment in Online Spaces. Mujeres Activas en Letras y Cambio Social, University of Wyoming, Laramie, Wyoming. August 2016.

Intellectual Decolonization of a Midwestern Chicana. National Association of Ethnic Studies, University of Arizona, Tucson, AZ. March 2016.

The Oral Histories of Latinos in Wisconsin. Oral History Association Conference, Madison, WI. October 2014.

Gender Roles in the Latino Community from Past to Present. La Mujer Latina Conference, University of Wisconsin. Madison, WI. April 2013.

Chicana Activism in the 1960's in the Midwest. National Women's Studies Association, Oakland, CA. November 2012.

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Arizona State University: Department of Gender Studies

Instructor

Spring 2018. WST 380: Race, Gender, and Class (online)

Fall 2017. WST 300: Women, Gender & Contemporary Society (online)

Spring 2017. WST 380: Race, Gender, and Class (online)

Fall 2016. WST 394: U.S. Women of Color and Economic Inequality (designed course)

Fall 2016. WST 377: History/American Feminist Thought (online)

Teaching Assistant

Spring 2016. WST 380: Race, Gender and Class (online)

Fall 2015. WST 394: Women, Power and Leadership (online)

Spring 2015. WST 394: Sex, Violence and the Media (online)

Fall 2014. WST 371: Sex and the City (online)

Northeastern Illinois University: Department of Women's and Gender Studies and Sociology

Adjunct Instructor

Spring 2014. WGS 101: Women's Perspectives & Values

Spring 2014. SOC 270: Sociology of Latinas

Oakton Community College: Department of Humanities:

Adjunct Instructor

Fall 2013. WGS 101: Introduction to Women's and Gender Studies

University of Wisconsin- Madison: Department of Gender and Women's Studies

Teacher Assistant

Spring 2012-Spring 2013 WGS 102: Gender, Women, and Society in Global Perspective Course

INVITED PRESENTATIONS/PANELS

Feminist Talk: Navigating the "in-between-ness" of Academia and Home through Social Change. Women and Gender Studies Department. Northeastern Illinois University. Nov 2017.

Women and Gender Studies Alumni Panel. Women and Gender Studies Department. Northeastern

Illinois University. March 2017.

Teacher Assistant Practical Issues, Preparation, and Personal Experience. McNair Scholars Program. Northeastern Illinois University. October 2016.

Chicana Feminism Workshop. MEChA Youth Conference, Arizona State University. Feb 2016.

Brown Bag Event: Come Hear HERstory! Julia Gutierrez. Latina/o and Latin American Studies Program. Northeastern Illinois University. March 2014.

SERVICE

Latino/a Graduate Student Alliance. Arizona State University September 2014- Present.

Organized the following events in addition to presiding over graduate student organization:

- Spring 2018: “Women of Color Activism: A Critical Dialogue.”
- Fall 2016: “What does it mean to be Undocuqueer/Trans?”: Gender, Sexuality, and Immigration Status as Categories of Analysis to Understand Structural Barriers and Resilience among Self-Identified Latinx Undocuqueer/Trans Students.
- Spring 2016: “What’s Queer about Afro-Latinidad?”
- Fall 2015: Professors of Color in Academia Professional Development Panel

Graduate Student Liaison for the Gender Studies Graduate Student Association. Arizona State University, Spring 2016-Spring 2017

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS

National Association for Ethnic Studies, March 2016-Present

American Educational Research Association, March 2016-present

National Women’s Studies Association, June 2012- Present

National Association of Chicano/a Studies, September 2012-Present

Mujeres Activas en Letras y Cambio Social, Summer 2011- Present