

Arizona State University
Women and Gender Studies MA Program
Thesis/Applied Project Proposal

Name(Last, First, Middle)	ID No.	Phone	Date
Local Address		Email
City, State, Zip		Anticipated Graduation:
Title of Project:		Thesis or Applied Project:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Graduate students are responsible for reviewing http://graduate.asu.edu/graddeadlines.html and completing all necessary procedures by the date specified. Failure to do so may postpone graduation.</li> <li>An approved Plan of Study (POS) must be on file prior to registering for either WST 594: Applied Project, WST 592: Research, or WST 599: Thesis</li> </ul>

Attach a detailed description of your applied project or thesis. The following sections should be included in a document approximately 5-8 pages long:

Problem Statement: state exactly what the project is designed to demonstrate, question or analyze.

Project Design: provide a detailed plan for the project

Timeline for Completion: provide a detailed timeline for the completion of the applied project or thesis, including IRB approval, data collection (if applicable), analysis, writing deadlines, and anticipated meetings with faculty members.

Resources: list the resources required, including bibliographic, technological, space, and equipment.

Methodology: describe the methodology to be employed in the exit project.

Literature Review: provide a detailed literature review, including projects that have been undertaken by others with similar problems.

Bibliography: provide a working bibliography for your project.

Name	Signature	Date
Supervising Faculty Member (Chair/Advisor)	Supervising Faculty Member (Chair/Advisor)
Faculty Committee Member	Faculty Committee Member
Faculty Committee Member (if applicable)	Faculty Committee Member (if applicable)
Director of Graduate Program	Graduate Program Director	